Approximately 300 guests attended the dinner, including Mrs. Rita Fan Hsu Lai-tai, Member of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of the PRC and Chairlady of Lifeline Express Hong Kong Foundation; Professor KC Chan, GBS, JP, Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region; Dr. Ko Wing-man, Secretary for Food and Health of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region; Professor Liu Ming-kang, Former Chairman of the China Banking Regulatory Commission, PRC and Vice Chairman of Chinese Foundation for Lifeline Express; Mr. Eddy Fong, Former Chairman of Securities & Futures Commission and Vice Chairman of Lifeline Express Hong Kong Foundation; Mrs. Nellie Fong, Founding Chairman of Lifeline Express Hong Kong Foundation; Dr. Liu Jun, Deputy General Manager of China Everbright Group, and Mr. Chen Shuang, Executive Director and CEO of China Everbright Limited.

During the event, Dr. Liu Jun handed over a cheque for HK$1 million to Lifeline Express on behalf of China Everbright Charitable Foundation to support the work of the Lifeline Express Hospital Eye-Trains.

CEO Chen Shuang made a speech in the dinner and expressed that Everbright will continue to support the social community charity programs and is willing to build a charity connection for both Hong Kong and mainland China to help those in need. Furthermore, in order to build a long-term partnership with different sectors of the society, Everbright will allocate more resources on different community projects.

Lifeline Express

The Lifeline Express Hospital Eye-Train first embarked on its mission to provide free operations and treatment to the underprivileged cataract sufferers in China in July 1997. Over the past 17 years, the Hospital Eye-Trains have helped restore vision to more than 150,000 cataract patients in China by offering them free operations on the Trains. Lifeline Express has also established training centres for ophthalmology microsurgery and cataract treatment centres in the rural areas of mainland China. Moreover, Lifeline Express has introduced an international examination and other learning opportunities for the eye doctors in China, so as to improve their level of knowledge and enhance to a higher level.
